LOCATION

Campbeltown is located in the Kintyre peninsula within the Argyll and Bute region and has a residential population of around 8,000, approximately 10% of the regions 90,000 population. The town is well served by many high street and local shops including supermarkets, several garages, a college, schools, a medical centre / hospital and yacht club. It's also popular with tourists and boasts a variety of hotels and restaurants.

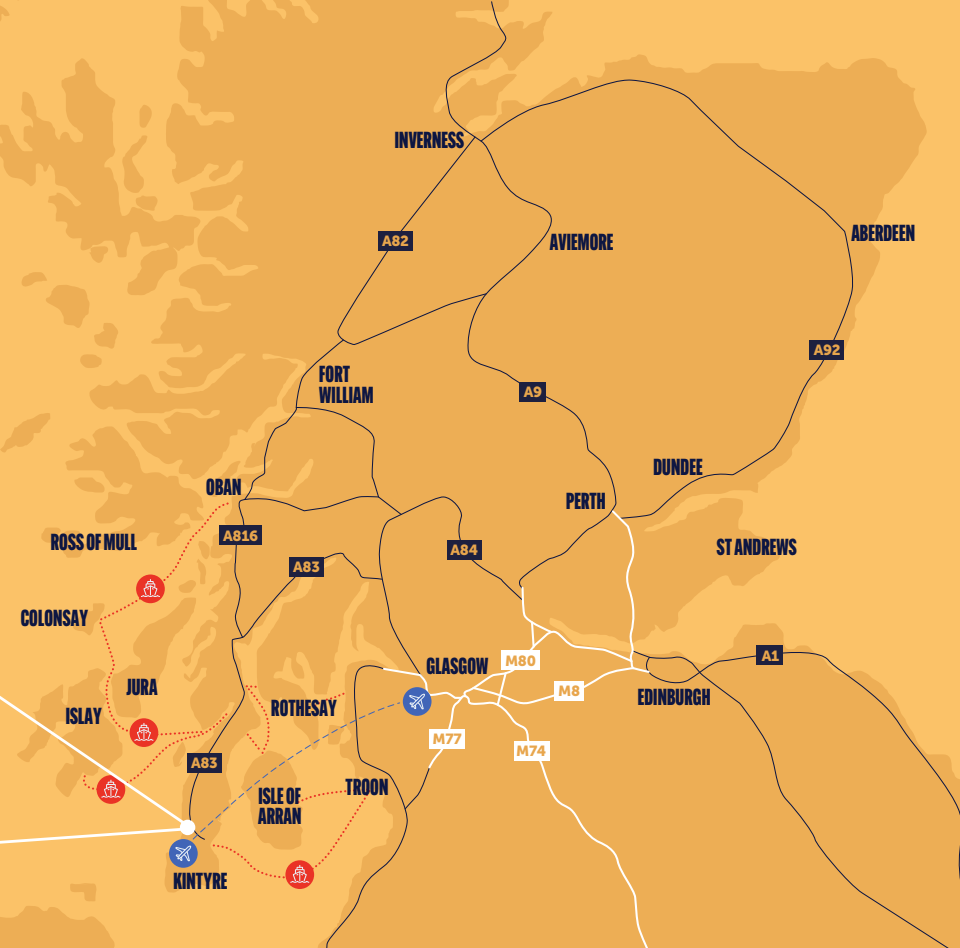

The town is accessed via the A83 at Lochgilphead (50 miles north). Glasgow lies some 138 miles to the east via the A83 / A82. Campbeltown is also accessible via the Ardrossan - Campbeltown ferry with a journey time of approximately 2 hours 40 mins. Ardrossan in turn is a 40 minute train journey from Glasgow Central Station.

BUILDING F

DESCRIPTION

A unique industrial complex providing a variety of fabrication / warehouse buildings on a 66.38 acre site with large areas of laydown space in a fully secure environment. The buildings offer a range of clear heights but generally in excess of 10 metres. Substantial crange is also provided with up to 80 tonne capacity.

There is a two storey office building which is finished to a good standard with open plan and cellular accommodation plus a large canteen. Further catering facilities are available on the wider MACC Business Park.

There is a substantial power supply to the park and this along with its separation from other users makes it ideal for a variety of uses including fabrication, energy, recycling and film and television production.
